

Welcome to Mother Cabrini Shrine!

Mother Cabrini loved the mountains of Colorado. The foothills west of Denver held a special attraction for her. During her journeys in 1902 to visit the Italian workers and their families in the Clear Creek, Argentine, and South Park mining districts, Frances X. Cabrini discovered a property on the east slope of Lookout Mountain owned by the town of Golden.

No reliable source of water was known to exist on the property at that time, although there were two fine barns and a springhouse built in the 1890s. In 1909–1910, she negotiated the purchase of this property as a summer camp for her girls at the Queen of Heaven Orphanage in Denver.

After Mother Cabrini became a saint in 1946, the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Jesus dedicated this land as a shrine in honor of St. Frances Xavier Cabrini. Today, the Shrine serves more than 100,000 visitors annually. Please enjoy all that Mother Cabrini Shrine has to offer. If you need more information, please visit our Welcome Area next to the main chapel. We hope that you have a wonderful experience!
